

Fast Facts for Exhibitors at IFSEC West Africa 2010:

Accommodation:

- Eko Hotels is the event venue and official hotel for the event. The Hotel is on Victoria Island in Lagos.
- Airport transfers will be provided to exhibitors staying at the Eko Hotel and surrounding hotels. It would be advisable to stay at the Eko as moving around the city during peak traffic times can take a number of hours. And then at least you will be staying at the venue.
- The rate card at Eko Hotels has been discounted and includes break-fast.
- The Hotel offers breakfast, lunch and dinner and meals range between N 2800 and N 6600.
- Soft drinks are between N 1100 and N 1800.
- A beer will cost you N 1500 and a glass of wine N 1800.
- The Hotel is very comfortable and the dining areas become quite festive in the evenings.

Airport Transfers:

- UBM Montgomery will be offering airport transfers, this service will be provided by Halogen Security.
- Once exhibitors have moved through the baggage collection area, they will report to the IFSEC West Africa desk located in the baggage checking area. Here they will wait until all the exhibitors in that flight "batch" have been received they will be taken to the various vehicles and taken to their respective hotels.
- The process of waiting for all exhibitors from your flight/s to move through passport control and baggage collection could take up to 2 hours.
- Please see "Airport Process Flow" document.

Other Pointers:

- Pack light. When you leave Nigeria you will go through 3 check points.
- Lock your bag when flying in and out of the country.
- Do not drink the tap water, but there is plenty bottled water available.
- Ensure you have had your yellow – fever injection and take mosquito repellent (especially for sitting around the pool at night).
- Plug-points are the same as UK plugs.

Lastly, enjoy your trip and exhibition in Nigeria. The country is very interesting and has a rich cultural heritage. Business opportunities are plenty and provided you partner with the right partners you can grow your product/s into the Nigerian market very successfully.
